

Community Service Volunteer Agreement

- The Regional Food Bank of Oklahoma appreciates the work and efforts of all volunteers but we expect any volunteer to present themselves in an appropriate manner.
- Community service volunteers are responsible for keeping track of their hours and stay on-task.
- We require that community service volunteers to be in their assigned work areas except during planned break times of the group they are assigned.
- We require that community service volunteers dress appropriately and safely. We do not allow open toed shoes or bare feet. Pants must be worn at the waist line.
- We require that community service volunteers use and respond to everyone with appropriate language and gestures.
- All community service volunteers under 16 years of age must be accompanied by an adult during their work visits to the Food Bank. All volunteers under age 18 must also have a signed Parent/Guardian Permission Form.
- The Food Bank reserves the right to request any volunteer to not return if they can not follow these guidelines, respect others, or work at an acceptable level. Additionally, community service volunteers should have their own transportation in case they are asked to leave.
