Chores to Doors Fights Hunger Partners with Regional Food Bank of Oklahoma

(OKLAHOMA CITY) – Jan. 7, 2015 – Chores to Doors is partnering with the Regional Food Bank of Oklahoma to fight hunger year-round by donating $1 from each sale to the nonprofit.

Chores to Doors delivers groceries, dry cleaning, food from restaurants, fast food and more to clients around the north Oklahoma City and Edmond metro area. The company delivers a wide range of products and services and provides a quick and convenient online shopping experience.

“With more than 6,000 items and growing, we provide the largest variety of products and service delivery options when compared to any other delivery service available in this area,” said Michael Cox, owner of Chores to Doors. “We are also committed to fighting hunger in Oklahoma. Chores to Doors believes that there is no reason for anyone in this day and age to have to worry about where their next meal will come from.”

It’s not too late to make a difference this holiday season. The Regional Food Bank typically provides five meals for every dollar donated; however, through this match, a $1 donation will now provide 10 meals for hungry Oklahoma children. Consider a gift to the Regional Food Bank in honor or in memory of a loved one. For more information visit regionalfoodbank.org or call 405.600.3136.

The Regional Food Bank is the state’s largest private hunger-relief organization, providing enough food to feed more than 110,000 hungry Oklahomans every week through a network of more than 1,200 charitable feeding programs and schools in 53 central and western Oklahoma counties. The nonprofit is an Accredited Business by BBB and is ranked as a four star nonprofit by Charity Navigator.
