FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Join Kendra Scott in Fighting Hunger Give Back Night December 9 Fights Hunger

(Oklahoma City) – Dec. 4, 2014 – On Tuesday, December 9, join Kendra Scott in Classen Curve and the Regional Food Bank of Oklahoma in fighting hunger. From 5 to 8 p.m., 20 percent of sales will benefit the nonprofit to ensure that families, seniors and children have enough to eat this holiday season.

With philanthropy at the heart of the Kendra Scott business, the company is dedicated to giving back and supporting both local and national causes. CEO and Designer Kendra Scott involves herself personally and professionally in charities that are near and dear to her heart, and she has worked to establish philanthropy as a core value of her company.

“The Kendra Scott company values giving back to the community as a central priority, and we wouldn’t be the company we are today without that as a foundation,” says Kendra Scott. “Partnering with organizations like the Regional Food Bank to give back in a meaningful way is what our company believes to be the greatest definition of success.”

One in six Oklahomans has inconsistent access to food. During the winter, 40 percent of the Regional Food Bank’s clients have reported having to choose between food and heating their home.

Together, we can solve hunger. Through January 15, Chesapeake Energy Corporation and the Cresap Family Foundation have teamed up to match every dollar donated to the Regional Food Bank of Oklahoma to fight childhood hunger – up to $1 million! To make a donation, visit www.RegionalFoodBank.org or call 405.600.3136.

The Regional Food Bank is the state’s largest private hunger-relief organization, providing enough food to feed more than 110,000 hungry Oklahomans every week through a network of more than 1,200 charitable feeding programs and schools in 53 central and western Oklahoma counties. The nonprofit is an Accredited Business by BBB and is ranked as a four star nonprofit by Charity Navigator.
